

Tome of the Gods

On the third day of the eleventh month, eight forty-two, a group of adventurers known as The Shield of Basin, rulers of Fort Basin of Mirefield at the time, delved into the volcano on the largest island in The Silver Islands. They were of the understanding that the seams of our world, held together by magic, were falling apart. Within the mountain they discovered The Betrayed bound to protect the way through to the Tome of the Gods which was not a book or scroll, but the consciousness of The Mother herself.
