New Freedom Coalition

Pukleshi is a young belief system revolving around enlightenment. Their main teachings revolve around inner peace and knowledge, and these teachings are often passed on through moments of quiet meditation and seeking your inner self. Pukleshi teachings come from spiritual leaders who have volunteered to be teachers and mentors. They often express their beliefs through shrines, vases and necklaces.
Despite being a young belief system, Pukleshi has managed to establish itself as a serious and respected way of life. More and more communities see Pukleshi as a way to enrich their lives.
The leader of the Pukleshi is called The Seer and leads the entire planet. He and his Disciples live in the capital while other leaders in the religion follow his guidelines and teach the rest of the world how to live.
The Seer only wishes to use his knowledge to bring joy and happiness to the people of Teus.
Location: Teus
