Luneth was a devout paladin of the Mother and dedicated her life to spreading the light of the Mother around Ovenica. Having taken her Oath to Devotion, aligned with her heritage, she saw it has her duty to bring light wherever she went. However, about six months before meeting the party that would become The Guardian's of the Lost, she had undertaken a mission that has been wiped from her memory. She awoke after the gap in her memory in the mud, her oath broken, her heart filled with vengeance, and the light inside her a pool of fear and anger. She still travelled after that trying to spread the light, but her efforts shifted from teaching, to the eradication of the Mother's enemies.
