Boola 8 - Refuelling Station

The refuelling station of Boola 8 is well known for it's exceptionally high prices that ship captains are forced to pay due to it being the only station around Ruka. Recently however, a group of pirates have taken over the station, holding it's owners hostage, and charging even higher prices for fuel.
Boola 8 was initially built to make the Dhinkaid government some extra money off of the ships that were allowed to visit the planet.
